

Ellen Anderson Is Engaged

The engagement of Miss Ellen Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Anderson, 26316 Eshelman Ave., Lomita, to Robert Pope, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pope, 1542 219th St., Torrance, was announced at a buffet dinner Oct. 11 in the home of her parents.

Party guests included the bride-elect's parents; the groom-elect's parents; the bride's uncle, Rev. K. Lowe Sutter, who will officiate at the wedding; his wife, Miss Carol Taylor, who will be bridesmaid; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schebell, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Burnett, Donald Pope, brother of the groom-elect; Joel Purcell, who will be his attendant; Mrs. Marie Brunch, and her daughter Joan, who will be the maid of honor.

December Wedding
The marriage is planned for late December in the Lime Avenue Baptist Church of Long Beach.

The bride-elect is a June 1958 graduate of Narbonne High school. The groom-elect was graduated from Narbonne in '55 and has just completed two years service with the U.S. Army paratroopers.

Police Officer Gives Safety Talk

"Operation Safety" was the theme of the Oct. 16 meeting of Howard Wood PTA, held in the school cafeteria. Guest speaker was Officer Don Hartel of the Torrance Police Department, who gave helpful suggestions on all phases of safety for children and adults.

Newly elected officers of the student council were introduced.

Women Sponsor Political Meet

Women for Good Government will present a program in the classic bi-partisan tradition Oct. 29 when Democrat Cecil King and Republican Leonard Di Micele will each speak in behalf of his party and his candidacy.

According to Mrs. Charles Shute, president, each speaker will give his own and his party's point of view on vital issues and both will answer questions from the floor at the conclusion of their remarks. "Tremendous interest has been evidenced in this program," Mrs. Shute added "and a capacity audience is anticipated."

All men and women of the harbor and peninsula areas are invited. The program is set for 10 a.m. in the clubrooms of the Women's Club, 11th and Gaffey Sts., San Pedro.

Aquarium Society Meets Tonight

Charles Howes of South San Gabriel will be the guest speaker at tonight's meeting of the Harbor Aquarium Society to be held in the recreation hall of McMassters Park 174th and Yukon. His subject will be "Aquarium Plants."

Aquarium plants will be on the show table instead of the usual fish display.

A five gallon tank and hood and a fifteen gallon aquarium complete with fish, plants, and accessories, will be given as prizes. Refreshments will be served. The general public is invited to attend.

DOUBLE ANNIVERSARY — John McCauley, 90, and his wife Ann, 85, cut the cake at a party to celebrate their 63rd wedding anniversary and the 13th wedding anniversary of their daughter and her husband, Harry Davidson. The elder couple only recently came to Torrance to make their future home.

Oldsters Come To Make Home in Torrance

Arriving at International Airport Oct. 1, following their first air flight, were 90-year-old John McCauley, and his pretty 85-year-old wife, Ann. The two came from Lewis, Iowa, to make their future home in Torrance.

A daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davidson, 5327 Bindevald Rd., preceded them to Torrance by three years, to California, by 13.

Celebrate Anniversary
The two couples celebrated their mutual wedding anniversary Oct. 5, in the Davidson home. The elder couple have been married for 63 years. Their daughter Elberta married Harry Davidson on her parents golden wedding anniversary and they moved to California shortly after.

A second daughter, Miss Faye McCauley of San Rafael, California, was in Torrance for the double celebration.

McCauley was born near Pontiac, Illinois. At 14, he moved with his family to Boulder, Colorado, traveling by wagon train in a party of 40 wagons, only 14 of which arrived at the destination.

At 17, John bought horses at $3 per head and herded 14 to

Little League Auxiliary Plans Halloween Dance

Mrs. Earl Stewart announces a Halloween Dance to be given under sponsorship of the Torrance American Little League Auxiliary, Nov. 2 at Higgins Brickyard, 2217 W. 174th St. Hours of dancing will be 8 p.m.-1 a.m. Costumes will be optional. The public is invited and tickets will be available at the door.

18, thatched together, into Nebraska and Iowa, where he sold them at $25 per head.

Sees Killings
Working at a cattle ranch near Cheyenne, Wyoming, he witnessed several killings, including that of the Dalton gang in Coffeyville, Kansas.

He migrated to Cass County, Iowa, and when about 26, met Miss Ann Murphy to whom he was married on Oct. 15, 1895. They settled in Lewis, Iowa, then the county seat, where he maintained a dray and delivery service and a livery stable.

The McCauleys had nine children, all but one still living; ten grandchildren, and one great grandchild.

John declares that he likes California, and he thinks he will, that he "might be talked into staying the rest of his life" and he plans to live to a "ripe old age."

Couple Observes Silver Anniversary

The silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Butterfield, 22713 Cypress St., was celebrated last Saturday morning by a nuptial mass and renewal of marriage vows at St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church, Lomita. Father John V. Hagerty officiated.

Mrs. Butterfield wore a blue lace gown with white accessories and a white orchid corsage. Mothers of the couple were present for the occasion, Mrs. Zella Butterfield of Harbor City, wearing a black gown with white accessories and a white orchid corsage. Mrs. Lillian Nicol, who moved to Redondo only two months ago, wore blue and white and a white orchid corsage.

In New Home
An "Open House" was held following the church ceremony, at the couple's new home into which they moved only a week ago. They have lived in Harbor City, Lomita and Torrance since coming to the area in 1945 from Middletown, Ohio, where they were married 25 years ago.

Mrs. Butterfield is the organist at St. Margaret Mary Church and Mr. Butterfield is affiliated with BuFuel Corp. in Hollywood.

The couple have seven children: James Butterfield with the U.S. Army Field Band, now on a tour of the United States; David, leaving Nov. 24 for the Army as a volunteer; Mrs. Virginia Larmon, Mrs. Janet Harrington, Patty, Thomas, and Joe. There are two grandchildren, Mary Ann Larmon, and Johnny Harrington, one week old.
